The evidence in possession of the Commissioner connecting Jeff. Davis with the assassination of President Lincoln justifies the committee in saying that he was privity to the measure which led to the commission of the deed, but the impression which have been made by the War Department and by the committee have not resulted in placing the Government in possession of all the facts in the case. It is probable, however, that the further prosecution of the investigation by the committee and by the officers of the Government will result finally in awful developments of the whole transaction.

The capture of the Rebel Archives
has put the Government in possession of a mass of letters, papers and docu-

"The Great Eastern has just anchored off the telegraph office. The cable was spliced two hours since on the Medina, and will be here in three or four hours. The whole distance run is 1860 nautical miles—the cable paid out, 1860 miles, and it was a little less than two per cent. absolute distance."

HU. FRANCIS, Agt for sale and purchase of Lands, &c. Mar. 24.

From the Boston Evening Commercial, 21st. PRESIDENT JOHNSON.

His Views on the Political Situation His Opinion About the Negroes, Taxation, Reconstruction, &c.

In a recent conversation the President expressed the belief that the House of Representatives would contain a majority of conservative men disposed to support his policy toward the South. He also gave his views regarding negroes, taxation, the currency and the basis of representation which he denounced as a bugbear.

THE NEXT HOUSE.

A gentleman who had a free conversation with President Johnson, a short time since, informs us that he found him hopeful, in good spirits and unhesitating in the expression of his views. He does not anticipate anything like a Democratic majority in the next House of Representatives though the number of Representatives of that party will doubtless be considerably increased. But he does count confidently on the return of a majority of moderate men who will be prepared to deal with the people of the South as all honorable and high-minded nations deal with their antagonists after having beaten and disarmed them. And in districts and States where the Republican party fail to nominate such men he thinks Democratic candidates will be likely, in a majority of cases, to be elected over Radicals.

The President is unhesitatingly of the opinion that the only safety of the nation lies in a generous and expansive plan of conciliation, and the longer this is delayed the more difficult will it be to bring the North and South into harmony. If the suspicious, tyrannical policy is too long pursued, the population of the South will become as hostile, in time, to the North as the people of Ireland are toward England, adding to this evil of hereditary and growing animosity an ability for revenge a hundred fold greater than Ireland possesses.

THE NEGROES.

In regard to the blacks, the President says they will find work enough, and for many years to come probably better remuneration than any other class of agricultural laborers in the country. The competition of capitalists and land owners will insure good treatment and good pay from the planters. That there will be much disorder is to be expected; but there will be no more than there would be at the North, were the number of black laborers sufficiently numerous to enter into serious rivalry with white laborers.

TAXATION.

The President is confident that nothing can be safely and permanently done in regard to restoring the currency, diminishing taxation and establishing the prosperity of the country on a sound and enduring basis until Representatives from all the States are present in Congress. The idea of legislating for one-tenth of the population of the country, and passing constitutional amendments without allowing them any voice in the matter, or paying any attention to their wishes, is full of danger to the future peace and welfare of the nation: They cannot be treated as a subjugated people or as vassal colonies without a germ of hatred being introduced, which will some day or other, though the time may be distant, develop mischief of the most serious character.

REPRESENTATION.

With regard to the basis of representation, he denounces this as a mere bugbear. It cannot and will not be permanently settled until all the States are represented, and no increase in the numbers of representatives in consequence of the emancipation of the slaves can in any event occur until the census of 1870 is taken, until which time of course the three-fifths provision is in force under the last census. There is, therefore, ample time to settle this matter between now and 1870, and it is unwise to agitate it until other matters which cannot be delayed are settled.

NO TREASON OR TRAITORS.

The President does not admit that he is inconsistent. He is as much opposed to treason and traitors as ever he was, and for punishing them severely. But there is no treason and no traitors now. The enemy has fully and fairly surrendered and is powerless, and a foe thus situated should be magnanimously treated. A generous and self-reliant warrior always restores his disarmed enemy his sword and trusts his parole of honor.

FREEDOM FOR THE SOUTH.

The idea of muzzling the press and tying the tongues of the people of the South, after the manner of the suspicious tyrant and the Holy Inquisition of the Old World, he denounces as absurd. A people should be allowed to grumble who have suffered so much, and they would be unworthy the name of men if they did not respect the brave officers who have suffered with them, and honor the memory of their gallant dead who sleep on a hundred battlefields around their homes.

The Rome Courier of the 2d inst. speaking of the improvements going on in that city, says:

"Messrs. Nobles & Mitchell having completed their foundry—a substantial brick building, with slate roof, 40 by 60 feet, and the blacksmith shop, a wood building, 80 by 40 feet, are now energetically at work constructing a brick machine shop 250 by 40 feet, and two stories high. They are also building an engine house and brass foundry 40 feet square. When all completed these will be among the most extensive establishments of the kind in the South. If we had a few more citizens possessing the indomitable energy and perseverance of this firm, we would soon have a city sure enough."

BREAKERS AHEAD.—The National Intelligencer of the 20th says:

With but one half of the country, the prestige of the Union cannot be maintained. The continued alienation of the staple-producing States, and their subjection to arbitrary power and plunder, begin to shake confidence in the stability of the Government. The next Congress, and indeed the action of the present Congress at the session, may involve the country more deeply than ever in the danger of a dissolution of the Federal Government. Rebel arms could not effect that object, but Radical usurpation may do it.

But it is to the next Presidential election that men look with alarm and distrust. Already we find that prudent and considerate men, who are not office-holders, nor participants in the public plunder, which is one of the chief bonds that hold together the Radical Congress party, are becoming shy of Government securities, except for temporary purposes, and are investing their money in real property, which may survive the shock of the public credit, and failure of the Government promises to pay.

A collision, at some time, either before or soon after the Presidential election, between the Congress faction and the conservative power of the people, may be, and is, apprehended. The Radical Congress cannot much longer refuse, without hazard to the public credit, to recognize the loyal States of the South and the loyal men whom they elect as their representatives. There are many ways in which difficulties might arise which would render legislation uncertain, and even stop the wheels of Government entirely, if indeed, the people are to tolerate and support this usurping and tyrannical Congress and their measures.

Rub your body well with vinegar, and the flea will out your acquaintance as quick as his elastic legs will carry him off.

THE PERMANENT DRYING UP OF THE MISSISSIPPI.—Old steamboatmen declare that the signs of the past four or five seasons point to the permanent drying up of the Mississippi river, reducing it from a stream navigable for the largest boats the whole season to one of uncertain navigation like the Missouri, passable at certain seasons, and the rest of the year shrunk to a mere creek, winding along among sandbars and shoals. There is certainly some change taking place in our climate that is affecting our lakes and rivers. They are greatly different in their habits from what they were eight or ten years ago. The average of water is steadily decreasing. Our "June rise," once as certain as the coming of the month, has totally ceased. The heaviest rains, which once would have swelled the river several feet, now do not seem to affect it in the least. There are many theories advanced to explain this. One is that the climate is undergoing some change, which seems plausible, as those who have studied the meteorology of our state are convinced that this change is taking place. Another theory is that the cultivation of the country, destruction of forests, and other physical causes have tended to decrease the rainfall and retard the flowing of extra moisture into the streams. Whatever may be the cause, the effect certainly exists, and the same thing has been seen on all the Western rivers, which are gradually shrinking up. In our case, however, the evil is less to be feared, because our railroad system is so nearly developed that river navigation is not now the necessity it once was to our commercial public. The river can never again, whether it continues navigable or not, assume the important part it has hitherto played in the development of our State. We must look to the railroad to continue our civic prosperity. Destined to be a railroad centre of the greatest importance, the trade and commerce hitherto brought us by the river must always continue. St. Paul (Mo.) Pioneer

Already we find that prudent and considerate men, who are not officeholders, nor participants in the public plunder, which is one of the chief bonds that hold together the Radical Congress party, are becoming shy of Government securities, except for temporary purposes, and are investing their money in real property, which may survive the shock of the public credit, and failure of the Government promises to pay.

A collision, at some time, either before or soon after the Presidential election, between the Congress faction and the conservative power of the people, may be, and is, apprehended. The Radical Congress cannot much longer refuse, without hazard to the public credit, to recognize the loyal States of the South and the loyal men whom they elect as their representatives. There are many ways in which difficulties might arise which would render legislation uncertain, and even stop the wheels of Government entirely, if indeed, the people are to tolerate and support this usurping and tyrannical Congress and their measures.

Rub your body well with vinegar, and the flea will cut your acquaintance as quick as his elastic legs will carry him off.

THE PERMANENT DRYING UP OF THE MISSISSIPPI.—Old steamboatmen declare that the signs of the past four or five seasons point to the permanent drying up of the Mississippi river, reducing it from a stream navigable for the largest boats the whole season to one of uncertain navigation like the Missouri, passable at certain seasons, and the rest of the year shrunk to a mere creek, winding along among sandbars and shoals. There is certainly some change taking place in our climate that is affecting our lakes and rivers. They are greatly different in their habits from what they were eight or ten years ago. The average of water is steadily decreasing. Our "June rise," once as certain as the coming of the month, has totally ceased. The heaviest rains, which once would have swelled the river several feet, now do not seem to affect it in the least. There are many theories advanced to explain this. One is that the climate is undergoing some change, which seems plausible, as those who have studied the meteorology of our state are convinced that this change is taking place. Another theory is that the cultivation of the country, destruction of forests, and other physical causes have tended to decrease the rainfall and retard the flowing of extra moisture into the streams. Whatever may be the cause, the effect certainly exists, and the same thing has been seen on all the Western rivers, which are gradually shrinking up. In our case, however, the evil is less to be feared, because our railroad system is so nearly developed that river navigation is not now the necessity it once was to our commercial public. The river can never again, whether it continues navigable or not, assume the important part it has hitherto played in the development of our State. We must look to the railroad to continue our civic prosperity. Destined to be a railroad centre of the greatest importance, the trade and commerce hitherto brought us by the river must always continue.

Fresh Corn Seed. of last year's growth, from farms of superior quality, for sale at the stores of Messrs. McTear and Patterson. These seed are from Turnips raised by Mr. Brown in the county, mentioned in our paper last Fall, as among the finest ever brought to this market.

We have placed a number of accounts in the hands of Carr, J. M. As-pinson, for which he is authorized to receive. Our friends will confer a special favor by settling with him whenever opportunity is offered.

The Radicals as might have been expected, are raising a dreadful howl
over the New Orleans riot, attributing
it to the lawless and rebellious spirit of the South, instead of the true cause,
the attempted usurpation of a defunct
and irresponsible portion of the members of the old State Convention of 1861. By this means they hope to deepen the prejudice, and stir up animosity against the South, as they did at about the Memphis riots, but in both instances they have failed. The time has at length arrived, when the people of all sections, can look on with calmness, and judge with deliberation and reason of the real cause of all difficulties. Even some of the Northern papers, of decided Radical tendencies
have declared that no civilized people could or ought for a moment to tolerate
such a glaring and insulting usurpation
as the one attempted by that bogus Convention.

The National Union Convention.

One of the four delegates appointed from this Dist., Hon. John Foster, started from this place for Philadelphia
on Tuesday last. Everything we hear thus far of the prospects of the convention are encouraging and cheering.
All parts of the country will be fully and ably represented, and it is estimated that at least fifty thousand people will be in attendance. The duty of the approaching convention will indeed be plain and easy: it will be simply to lay down the platform of a "National Union Party," alike honorable, equitable and just to all, upon which all good and true men can heartily and cordially unite.
Such a platform will be the death-warrant of the disunion Radical faction, which has already committed political suicide, by voluntarily abandoning reconstruction union principles and policy, in the vain hope of retaining permanent political power. We hope and believe that the deliberations of the approaching convention will be harmonious, and its action wise and conservative. Should discord be introduced, we may be sure that it is by real enemies and not real friends of the objects in view.

We expect in the next number of our paper to be enabled to give some interesting telegraphic items of information
of the proceedings of the Convention.

The Weather and Crops.

We notice in our exchange papers
many distressing accounts of injury to the crops from drought, particularly in the States of Mississippi, Florida, Alabama and Georgia. In some parts of Mississippi one fourth of a crop of corn and cotton is the estimate, and we presume the same estimate would be a fair one for a large portion of this State and Georgia. As a natural consequence the question is often asked, "what will the people do?" This question, like many others, is more easily asked than answered.

The extreme heat of the weather too has no doubt caused the drought to be more injurious than it would have been in ordinary seasons. Meteorologists who have kept registers of the weather,
state that this has been the hottest summer for the last eighty-nine years.

In this place on Wednesday last the thermometer rose to 96 in the shade,
and on Thursday to 98. It has frequently been up to 94 and 95.

FIRE.—On Thursday last, about 3
o'clock in the evening, the residence occupied by Judge Woods, on the west side of main street, a short distance
south of the public square was discovered to be on fire. The alarm was promptly given, many of our citizens
rushed to the scene of threatened disaster, with their buckets of water. The fire was in the roof, supposed to have caught by a spark from the chimney.
Soon a number of our prompt and interested citizens were on the roof with buckets of water, combating with the destructive element, among whom we noticed Mr. James Webb, who we are informed threw the first bucket of water on the fire. It was quickly extinguished, and perhaps the destruction of a number of houses prevented. This narrow escape should incite all our citizens to increased caution and vigilance in guarding against fire, especially while everything is so dry and inflama-ble.

Alabama State Lottery.

It will be seen by reference to the new advertisement, that the next drawing of this Lottery will take place in Mobile on Monday Sept. 3d, 1866.

Call on Col. Hugh Francis, Agt. at this place for tickets.
In the last drawing, 6th inst., Mr.
John Davis of Mobile drew one fourth of the 50,000 prize, and P. Girlich & Co. of the same city drew one fourth of the 25,000 prize. No. 29,492 drew
the $12,500 prize; No. 21,581 drew $5,000, and Nos. 3,579 & 25,501 each drew $2,500.

HORSE THEFTS ABOUT.—It will be seen by reference to the advertisement of Mr. F. Snow, that he had a valuable mare stolen on the night of the 6th inst. for which he offers a reward for man and thief of one hundred dollars.
We have also heard of several other cases
of horse stealing in the last few days.

FACTS VS. THEORIES.

"Give me a place to rest my lever on,"
says Archimedes, "and I will move the world." "Give me pure and unadulterated
drugs," says Medicine, of the olden time,
"and I will cure disease."

In essence, both of these learned pundits were the wisest charlatans. They knew there was no place to rest their lever on,
either to move the world or cure disease.
Mechanics was in a backward state, and the medical profession was but another name for sorcery, and all the adjuncts of magic filters
and charms of the "evil eye," &c.

But these latter days have borne unto us something more than even superstition and its ever-dreaded of in their maddest philosophy. In these days of practical science,
what was theory of yesterday is fact to-day,
and all the old time notions become bubbles
in the sun and burst and break with every breath we draw.

Let Archimedes shoulder his lever and we will find a resting place for it to move the world. Let mine ancient Medicine point and tell us where for the drugs he so sorely needs,
for we have them at our hand, ever ready to serve them at his beck.

Refined in the laboratory of Dr. Maggell,
the finest materials known in the medical profession are obtainable by any one. His Discussions, Dyspepsia, and Diarrhoea Pills stand un-derlaid, and his Salve operates with magical effect upon burns, scalds, and all sore and ulcers of the skin.

In fact, we think Maggell's Pills and Salve
are the wonder of this century, and we are happy to see thought that many others of our brethren of the craft agree with us. We would earnestly counsel that all families provide themselves with Dr. Maggell's Preparations at once, and keep them ready at hand,
so as to use them at the most opportune time
and on every occasion serves. —Valley Statesman.

READING, Pa., July 13.—The Democrats held a great meeting here yesterday, which was addressed by Montgomery Blair, Gov. Pendleton and others.
Mr. Blair predicts that should the Radicals carry the October election, the result would be the establishment of two Presidents and Congresses, for the Radicals would immediately impeach the President and turn him out; while on the other hand the Democratic members of Congress would unite with the regularly elected members from the South.
He also warned his hearers that the next battle field will be in the North,
while the South would remain a unite.

The Louisville Journal says: It afforded us unfeigned pleasure to read
the reply of Secretary of War to Gen.
Thomas, at Nashville. Brownlow wants the military power to help him
"manage" a Legislature, in time of peace. He wants to force a Legislature, even at the point of the bayonet, to do his bidding. He wants to compel a Legislature, when peace reigns, to accept a constitutional amendment, and calls upon the military authorities to help him in the compulsory process.
What ideas of freedom Mr. Brownlow has!

The N. O. correspondent of the

the destitute of Alabama that may be supplied here and I hear that a large quantity is likely to be accumulated.

A man living at a village near frighten some girls by wrapping a white cloth around his body and personating a ghost. All ran but one, who pulled out a revolver and deliberately fired six balls into the head and body. At the first shot the ghost fell, but she continued firing.—She then went home and related the circumstances, and parties

returning to the spot found life extinct,
two balls having penetrated the forehead and the other four the region of the heart. The sympathy of the peo-

A correspondent of the Selma messen-

nia, says:

"Crops in North Alabama, Georgia, Tennessee and Virginia look flourishing, and here, in the Valley of Virginia,
over which the scourge of war has so recently passed, the earth is smiling with an abundant harvest. The wheat crop is turning out much better than was anticipated, while oats, corn and peas are in a very flourishing condition.
A new spirit of enterprise appears to have been infused into the people of the valley. Improved farming implements are taking the place of old-fashioned ones. The clatter of a mowing drawn by three horses is sounding in my ears
as I write and I am told that much of the wheat was cut this year by means of improved reapers in place of the rapidly receding obsolete cradle."

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

Dr. MAGGELL is the founder of a new Medical System. The quantities, whose vast internal doses, on the stomach and passage to the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite. With from one to two of his extraordinary Pills,
and cures the most violent sores with a box
or so of his wonderful and all-healing Salve.
These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggell's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggell's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full of them creates an absolute necessity for another.
One of Maggell's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach,
create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored;
and if the nervous system is feeble, it is vigorized. This last quality makes the medicine very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Cerebral and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disintegrating power of Maggell's Salve. In fact, it is here-announced that Maggell's Biletics, Dyspepsia and Diarrhoea Pills cure all stomach ills. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggell's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGELL, 11 Pine Street, New York, Distributed by VANDIVER, Jacksonville, Ala.,
and all Druggists, at 25 cts per box.

NEW SOUTHERN MUSIC BOOK.

Just Published:

TABOR,
OR, THE

Richmond Collection of Sacred Music.
By R. M. MCINTOSH, of Virginia.

Essentially Southern in its main features,
Tabor nevertheless contains a choice selection of the best Northern copyright Music. Its author, for four years an officer of the Confederate army composed many stirring pieces
in moments snatched during his marchings and counter-marchings in Virginia. The dirge used at the funeral of General T. J.
Jackson (Stone-wall) May 17th, 1862, was
from his pen, and is included in this collection.

Mr. McIntosh, says the Richmond Whip,
"is well known throughout the South as an author and teacher of finished excellence, with all claims to fame in this country. In the South
he stands at the very head of church music,
no one disputing the position with him."
The book contains every thing of value of Southern or South-Western origin much of which is now for the first time reduced to a written form. Its variety is great—embracing all metres in use, in every key and every variety of measure—with a full elementary department and fine collection of new hymns, set pieces and sentences. It contains nearly 200 closely printed pages, neatly and tastefully gotten up, well printed and bound.

Five Thousand Dead Bodies Left on the Field.

Order of the Day.

COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF TO THE ALLIED ARMY.

CAMP OF VICTORY AT TUGUTY.

The enemy was completely whipped on the 24th of May, on the field of Tuguty, and was obliged to seek shelter in his fortifications, after having lost in his flight a great number of men, colors and small arms as well as his killed and wounded. After four hours and a half fighting he repulsed at every point of our lines which he had attacked in four columns, supported by reserves with the intention of turning our flanks. The victory is due to the Oriental army and divisions of the Brazilian, together with one regiment of the Argentine contingent, under the immediate command of Gen. Flores, occupying the center position, and the Brazilian troops on our left, under the command of Marshal Osorio. The right was held by the Argentine army under Paunero, with Col. Rivas leading the van—Generals Emilio, Mire and Hornos covering it with their respective forces.

More than 4,200 of the enemy's dead, abandoned on the field in his flight, 370 prisoners, the greater part of whom are wounded, four brass pieces of artillery, five standards, three colors; twelve drums; fifteen bugles; 4,700 muskets, more than one-third of which are flint-lock pieces; over 400 carbines; 300 pikes; 200 pikes, and 50,000 rounds of all cartridge, together with many other arms, were captured by our victorious troops in this battle which has shed so much glory upon the allied arms, and as proved so bloody and disastrous to the enemy. On the side of the allied army the total losses amount to 702 killed and 7,645 wounded.—Of the Brazilian contingent lost 413 killed, of which twenty-nine were officers—two of them being corps commanders—and 1,000 wounded, of whom 183 were officers, including one general. Of the Argentine troops, 125 were killed, of whom four were generals and seven officers; 480 were wounded, including two generals and thirty-five officers. The Oriental troops lost 133 killed, of whom twelve were officers, and 163 wounded, including seventeen officers.

All, without a single exception—Brazilians, Argentines, and Orientals—performed nobly their duty, from the highest officer to the lowest soldier. The heaviest fighting, however, fell to the lot of Brazilian contingent. The medical staff of the allied armies distinguished itself by its generous care of friends and foes.

The General-in-chief of the allied armies presents his compliments and solicitation to his victorious brethren in arms on this field of their victory. He leaves to the division commanders, the grateful duty of recommending in their respective reports those whose bravery entitled them to special consideration. For his own part, he desires to announce his satisfaction with the Brazilians as well as the Orientals and Argentines for the enthusiasm and gallantry which they all displayed—fighting like true freemen who sustain a great and just cause in a war to which we have been forced by provocation.

Long live the Empire of Brazil!
Long live the Oriental State of Uruguay!

REPORT OF GENERAL FLORES
HEADQUARTERS AT LAGOA TRANQUERA
May 25, 1866.

To His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief of the Allied Army:

Yesterday, at half-past eleven in the morning, the enemy made a sudden and fierce attack upon our centre, penetrating to within twenty-five yards of our guns and turning the left of our centre, thus rendered it necessary to move forward the First division, under General Argollo, and the Third under General Sampaio, to the threatened point, upon which firing became general along the line, from the centre to the foot of the mountain on the left. At half-past two the enemy had been completely repulsed from the centre of our position, and the firing continued only on our left, where the dense thickets and the rugged nature of the ground secured them a footing. Noticing this, I ordered a cessation of the firing at half-past four in the afternoon. The enemy, according to my calculations, has lost not less than twenty-five hundred killed and wounded and prisoners, besides some colors and pieces of artillery taken on the left by the Brazilians. Still, from the accounts of deserters who arrived here today from the Paraguayan camp, the enemy's loss cannot have been less than five thousand or six thousand men.

On our side I estimated that we have lost, in killed and wounded, about six hundred men out of the forces they fought in the centre.

God guard your Excellency many years.
VENACIO FLORES.

DIAMONDS OF HALL COUNTY.—Dr. M. F. Stephenson, has shown the editor of the Air Line Eagle several diamonds in their rough state, which he found in six miles of that place in 1861. They have the appearance of small pebbles, and if we had seen them on the ground would not have taken them to be anything of value. There is no doubt that the miners of Georgia have cast aside unnoticed many of these valuable gems.

Dr. Dostie's Speech.

The New Orleans Times gives what it declares to be a true report of the speech made at radical mass meeting, on the 27th ult., by the dead Dr. Dostie. Here is a part of it:

Dr. Dostie, in the course of his remarks on Friday night said, "I want the negroes to have the right of suffrage and we will give them this right to vote. There will be another meeting here to-morrow night, and on Monday I want you to come in your power. I want no cowards to come. I want only brave men to come, who will stand by us, and will stand by them. Come then in your power to that meeting, or never go to another political meeting in this State. We have three hundred thousand black men with white hearts. Also, one hundred thousand good and true Union white men, who will fight for and beside the black race, against the three hundred thousand hell-bound rebels, for now there are but two parties here. There are no copperheads now. Col. Field now making a speech inside, is heart and soul with us. He and others who would not a year ago speak to me, now take me by the hand. We are four hundred thousand to three hundred thousand, and can not only chip but exterminate the other party. Judge Abell with his grand jury may indict us. Harry Hays, with his posse comitatus, may be expected there, and the police, with more than a thousand men sworn in, may interfere with the convention; therefore, let all brave men, and not cowards, come here on Monday. There will be no such puerile affair as at Memphis, but if interfered with, the streets of New Orleans will run with blood."

WARLIKE RUMORS.

New York, Aug. 3.—An Ottawa, Canada dispatch says information has reached the Government that another Fenian movement will soon take place, with Gen. Dick Taylor its chief in command. It is thought that the next struggle will be severe.

The Herald's Havana correspondent says another Spanish fleet is about to sail for the South Pacific to resume the war against the Allied South American Republics. It consists of one iron clad, four steam frigates and four transports, carrying 184 guns. The transports carry ten or twelve thousand infantry.

THE SOUTHERN PRESS.—There never was a time when the Southern press was performing its duty to the South more vigilantly, fearlessly and usefully than now. The evidence of this ability, fidelity and efficiency can be found in the curses, imprecations, groans and yells of all the detected, flagellated and exposed petty military tyrants, unworthy judges, their cotton agents, and mousing agents of the Freedmen's Bureau, who were turned to so prey upon the Southern people before and at the end of the war. But for the press, these hapless would have stripped our people as bare as a pack of chydotes devour the carcass of a buffalo.

But the press has been the terror of these rapacious reptiles throughout the Southern States from the Rio Grande to the Potomac. Who does not know that the agony of unendurable suffering and torture from a hundred keen pens under the pen of a veteran grimaldin at the spears of the rats in the drawers of the Freedmen's Bureau, when they are limited down and caught, stuffed with rations and dishonest perquisites.

How very refreshing are the anathemas of the Hamiltons, the Brownlows, and the Holdens, who suffer the same merciless tortures. A Southern editor feels the grim joy of a veteran grimaldin at the spears of the rats in the drawers of the Freedmen's Bureau, when they are limited down and caught, stuffed with rations and dishonest perquisites.

STATE CONVENTION AT SELMA.—In the late State Convention at Selma, for the appointment of delegates to the National Convention, Hon. Jno. T. Heflin and Dr. C. J. Clark, acted as proxies of the delegates from this county. The session was very harmonious, and the proceedings throughout marked by wisdom, moderation and prudence. The following proceedings, containing a list of the delegates appointed for the State at large, and the different Districts, is about all that would now interest our readers:

Mr. Clark, from the committee to recommend delegates from the State at large, reported the following, who were thereupon chosen by the Convention:

Hon. Lewis C. Parsons, of Tallapoosa.
Hon. Geo. S. Houston, of Winston.
Hon. Benjamin Fitzpatrick, of Autauga.

Hon. Alex. White, of Dallas.
Hon. A. B. Cooper, of Wilcox.
Hon. Jno. Forsyth, of Mobile.
Hon. Jos. W. Taylor, of Greene.
Hon. R. B. Lindsay, of Franklin.

Mr. White, from the committee on resolutions, reported the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That we approve the restoration policy of President Johnson, and having been invited by a large number of distinguished fellow citizens from the Northern and Western States of the Union to meet in a National Union Convention to be held at Philadelphia, August 14th, we accept the invitation.

The following delegates to the National Convention, from the several districts were then reported by the respective delegations, and ratified by the Convention:

1st District—John K. Henry, of

Butler; C. C. Langdon, of Mobile; W. H. Crenshaw, of Butler; Thos. J. Goldsby, of Dallas.

2d District—Lewis Owen, of Montgomery; Jno. Gill Shorter, of Barbour; A. Tyson, of Lowndes; C. S. G. Foster, of Autauga.

3d District—C. A. Battle, of Macon; M. H. Bulger, of Tallapoosa; C. D. Cabot, of Coosa.

4th District—C. C. Hucklebee, of Greene; Jno. Bliss, of Sumter; L. M. Stone, of Pickens; J. S. Keeney, of Tuscaloosa.

5th District—John Foster, of Calhoun; A. G. Henry, of Marshall; W. O. Winston, of DeKalb; Thos. B. Cooper, of Cherokee.

6th District—Thos. J. Foster, of Lawrence; F. L. B. Godwin, of Franklin; W. S. Mudd, of Jefferson; Wm. M. Jackson, of Franklin.

Arrangements have been made by the Central committee at Washington, with all the Railroads, to transport all the delegates to Philadelphia at half fare.

Head-Centre Stephens has addressed a circular to the Fenian Brotherhood, in which he says the Fenians of this county are of right subordinate to the organization in Ireland, and that they work solely to gather and to the organization in Ireland. He reiterates the statement that the fight for freedom on Irish soil will come off this very year.

We understand that the estimable wife of General John C. Breckinridge, at present temporarily residing in Canada, presented him, a few days since, with twins. The hosts of friends of the parties will be gratified to know that they are doing as well as could be expected.

The public will learn with profound regret, that dispatches have been received in Montgomery, from Baltimore, announcing the serious indisposition of General Joseph E. Johnston.

The city wharf of St. Louis is to be extended for a distance of seven miles, giving un-rivalled wharf privileges along the entire river front. St. Louis is bound to be a considerable village.

The "Intelligencer" says that the "Barlow state quarry" is turning out slate equal to any ever obtained North or South. It is only two and a quarter miles from Carterville, immediately on the railroad. Judge Strong of Atlanta informs the editor that the quarry is to be worked immediately to supply the market demand, which is in excess of the supply.

Congress has authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to suspend the collection, in any of the States heretofore declared in insurrection, of the direct tax imposed by an act of Congress passed August 5, 1861, entitled an act to provide increased revenues from imports to pay interest on the public debt, and for other purposes, until January 1, 1868.

The Philadelphia Age of Thursday morning has a double headed editorial, calling attention to certain outgivings in the Radical press, that the Philadelphia Union Convention is to be mobbed out of existence by returned soldiers and firemen, etc., as an offset to the mobbing of the bogus negro suffrage Convention at New Orleans. Should such an outrage be attempted, says the Age in the event of the contingency referred to, the municipal arm would unhesitatingly be raised to protect the people in their rights, and that failing, the stronger power of the General Government will be called upon.

It is rumored that the President has notified Secretary Stanton that his resignation would be accepted, and that he will send in his letter of withdrawal soon. Mr. Harlan will not resign until compelled to do so. Governor Randall is popularly believed to be the successor of Mr. Demison. General Grant will take charge of the War Office and Judge Browning will have the Interior department.—Statements have been going to the press in regard to the intentions and phrase of President Johnson in the future, many of which are unauthorized and most entirely wrong. The President has no intention of being present at the Philadelphia Convention. He does openly and unambiguously sympathize with that convention, and will exert all his influence to make it a success.

Fresh Turnip Seed, of last year's growth, from turnips of superior quality, for sale at the stores of Messrs. McClellan and Frank. These seed are from Turnips raised by Mr. Brown in this county, mentioned in our paper last Fall, as among the finest ever brought to this market.

We have placed a number of accounts in the hands of Carr. J. M. Anderson, for which he is authorized to receipt. Our friends will confer a special favor by settling with him whenever opportunity is offered.

Public School System.—Mr. J. A. Fleming, County Superintendent of Public Schools, has nearly finished his round of appointments, made for the purpose of presenting to the consideration of the people, some changes proposed in the Public School System, and attending to other duties connected with his office. He reports the people generally well pleased with the proposed changes, which will no doubt be adopted at the next session of the Legislature. These changes will greatly increase the number educated, while the expense will be decreased.

We hope it will be remembered that a Convention of Teachers is called to meet in this place on Saturday next, and that all who feel an interest in the cause of Education are respectfully and earnestly invited and urged to attend. At this Convention addresses will be delivered, and the new law, proposing important and advantageous changes, will be read section by section, and commented on and explained, by W. J. Borden, Esq. one of our Representatives. We anticipate an interesting meeting, and hope those who are laboring with zeal and diligence, in the important cause of Education, may be cheered by the presence and approbation of many of our good and public spirited citizens.

Centenary Female College.

The attention of parents and guardians, who have daughters or wards to educate, is respectfully invited to the notice of the commencement of the next scholastic year, in this excellent and justly popular Institution. Centenary College, located in the lovely and salubrious village of Summerfield after twenty-five years of successful operation, has its jewels in the persons of highly accomplished and thoroughly educated Ladies, scattered all over this and adjoining States. It was never more thoroughly provided with competent, experienced, zealous and diligent Officers and Teachers than at present; the standard of Education too has been elevated, without an increase of rates. We know of no Institution of the kind in the South, offering more advantages or more worthy of patronage, and we therefore hope to see this section liberally represented in its classic halls.

Let no plea of hard times interfere with or prevent the education of the fair daughters of the South—better let any other earthly interest suffer than this.

Jacksonville Female Academy.

It will be seen by reference to the advertisement of the teachers this week, that the exercises of this institution of learning will be resumed on Monday the 24 day of September, to remain in session ten months. It will be continued under the care of the same teachers who have heretofore conducted with such entire success, and so much satisfaction to the patrons of the school. Judging from the past success of the school, we predict for it a full and numerous attendance and hope to see parents insist that their daughters, scarcely entered on their teens, attend school this session improving their time and fitting themselves to take positions as ornaments to society in due time instead of allowing them to enter so early into so unfit as they must necessarily be—mildments of an education—their places.

The Atlantic Cable

It seems strange to us—we can hardly realize that we are receiving from London, Liverpool and Paris, the news of day before yesterday; yet such is the fact, by that wonderful achievement, the successful laying of the Atlantic Cable. The dates from European and Northern cities, vary now but very little. We can remember back, since we have been at the printing business, when two or three months was considered late foreign news, and several weeks late from Northern cities—when there were no steamboats on the rivers, no steamships on the ocean, no railroads, no cylinder presses and no telegraph wires.

A late writer has observed, that discoveries and inventions have been given to the nations of the earth, by a beneficent Providence, as they seemed to need and be prepared for them; such as steam navigation, railroads, the telegraph, the great California and Australia gold mines, petroleum oil &c. and lastly the Atlantic Cable, which may be the forerunner of great and important moral and political changes in the world.

There are forty-two new stores now in process of erection in Atlanta. These will be for rent by the time the fall trade opens. Many others will soon be in course of construction.

PROSPECTS OF PEACE IN EUROPE.

New York, Aug. 9.—Cotton dull and unchanged.

The King of Prussia, at Berlin, on the 5th in reply to the congratulatory address said that Prussia had drawn the sword not only for her own independence but for the re-organization of Germany. The first had been accomplished, and the second may be obtained.

Berlin, Aug. 6.—At the sitting of the Chambers to-day the members cheered the King and the Prussian victories. Count Stalbert was elected President of the Upper House.

Prussia positively declined the proposition of Russia for Congress of the European Powers which signed the treaty at Vienna.

Vienna, Aug. 6.—It is expected that a definite treaty of Peace will soon be signed by Austria and Prussia, by the Plenipotentiaries, at Prague. Italy will not be included. If the difficulty relative to the armistice with Italy is not arranged within a few days hostilities will be renewed.

Florence, Aug. 6.—Italian and Austrian Generals met at Comran, in Austria, to negotiate. France takes no part in the pending armistice.

INDIAN WAR IN THE WEST.

MOBILE, Aug. 9.—Cotton sales to-day 150 bales; middlings 31c; market dull, and in favor of buyers.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 9.—Cotton is unchanged; sales 500 bales to day.

SARATOGA, N. Y. Aug. 9.—There are six hundred delegates at the National Union Convention. Judge Hamner, Nelson, war democrat, was elected temporary Chairman. The delegates will probably be composed of an equal number of democrats and republicans.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—By direction of the Secretary of War the Provost Marshal General's Bureau will be abolished immediately and the archives turned over to Assistant Adjutant General Townsend, by the 28th.

The Mexican Minister here has received dispatches from Juarez's Government, dated Chilpan, July 20th.

Juarez declines the services of Santa Anna because he was one of the originators of the plan of foreign intervention in the affairs of Mexico, and cannot be depended on now, because the Mexican people have lost confidence in him. His presence there it is stated further, would be an element of discord and trouble.

St. Louis, Aug. 9.—Fort Laramie advises state that an Indian war has recommenced.—They have killed several white men near Fort Reno, and also killed a great number of cattle and 35 white men near Fort Cannon, and have destroyed several trains.

THE CONTINENTAL SITUATION.

NAPOLEON PROPOSES TO PUT HIS FINGER IN THE PIE.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—Napoleon demands from Prussia the rectification of the French frontier, by its extension to the Rhine as it was prior to its disturbance in 1814. The military and naval preparations which are being carried on in France induce the belief that the Emperor will make war, if his demands are not complied with. The demand has caused great excitement in Berlin.

A semi-official journal in Berlin recommends Prussia to reconstruct Germany as far as possible on the basis of the preservation of the vital and constitutional rights of the States which are to be annexed to her.

Turkey has reduced her army of observations on the Danube, and it is thought the Sultan approved the rule of Prince Charles, of Hohenzollern, and of Dospodan in Roumania.

A CONVENTION OF NORTHERN AND SOUTHERN SOLDIERS PROPOSED!

SPEECH OF GOV. ORR, OF SOUTH CAROLINA!

New York, Aug. 14.—The Herald's special from Brussels 12th says:

There is great excitement in Vienna. Forty-two persons are to be tried for high treason. Crowds in the street called on the Emperor to abdicate. The Austrian Minister of Finance has resigned.

The American naval officers received a magnificent ovation at St. Petersburg.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 14.—The trains last night and this morning were crowded with delegates and visitors to the Convention, and all the hotels of the city are overflowing.

The reception room of the Executive Committee has been thronged with delegates registering their names.

Every State and Territory is represented.

The harmonious feeling of yesterday is still more marked to-day.

There will be no discussion on the resolutions. The interchange of opinions among the members has exhibited a unanimity of sentiment upon this subject that precludes the idea of discussion.

The resolutions will embrace substantially the propositions contained in the call for the Convention, which is honestly and candidly approved by all delegates here. North and South, republican or democrat.

It is proposed that the Convention shall issue a general address to the country, and that in addition proper Southern delegates should write in a separate address setting forth more in detail the position they occupy, the reasons by which they are influenced, and the results they hope to obtain.

An informal meeting was held last evening of soldiers of both the Northern and Southern armies, in which a proposition was made and received with favor to call a National Convention of soldiers of the two armies, to meet at some central point, within a few weeks, wherein men who fought bravely against each other may meet in a spirit of conciliation and determine to stand together in maintaining the Union and the Constitution.

Gov. Orr spoke at the National Hall last night. He said the people South believed they had a right to secede, the people North did not agree with them, and the question was submitted to the arbitrament of arms. The Northern interpretation of the Constitution has been fairly and legally established, and that decision was pronounced in the field of battle and is uncontested.

The South has surrendered her principles and accepted the Northern interpretation, and we are willing to abide by it forever. By this war the people of the South have to a very great extent been stripped of their property, their banks are gone, and their credit is gone and on many localities the great stand point of the civil laws has been lost.

Thus the people of the South have more need of a stable government than you of the North have, and it is more folly to charge that they will not fulfill their oaths to support this government. This is our government; as well as yours; but that we may be equal, we must have representation in Congress. It is not just to tax us, and yet exclude us from representation.

Montgomery Blair and others spoke later.

The Convention will organize in the wigwam.

SICKNESS.
An unusual amount of sickness prevails in all the Southern counties. The Commonwealth at Marion speaks of it in Perry as being almost universal. We learn from a gentleman from Elyton that the same exists in Jefferson county. Add to this the depressing influence of bad crops, the ravages of worms upon the cotton, and the general impoverishment of our people, and we may well exclaim as we heard a gentleman on yesterday, "Oh, Lord how long, how long till these calamities be overpast!" It would seem that the sad condition of the Southern people would be enough to soften the malignity of our enemies themselves. But while they roll in wealth and prosperity created by the war, they seem intent on bringing down upon us still heavier calamities.—Political agitation and revolution, set on foot by Northern Radicals and carried out by some of the lowest of Southern renegades, impend continued strife and unceasing. Surely the Almighty will yet undertake our cause for us, and if we are truly humble, will yet make us glad according to the days wherein he has afflicted us, and the years in which we have seen evil.
Selma Messenger.

PRISONERS OF WAR—FEDERAL AND CONFEDERATE.—"In reply to a resolution of the House of Representatives," says the Washington Union of Tuesday, "calling upon the Secretary of War for the number of either side held and that died during the war, he makes the following report:—Number of Union prisoners South 260,000; number of Confederate prisoners North 200,000; number of Union prisoners died 25,432." Out of 261,000 Union prisoners, 22,500 died. Out of 200,000 Confederate prisoners 26,500 died. The Union prisoners exceed the Confederate prisoners 61,000; yet the deaths of Union prisoners 6,000. Two "Yankees" died out of every twenty-three in Southern pens. Two "rebel" prisoners died out of every fifteen in Northern pens.

The reason Frankfort was not sacked upon the refusal of the authorities to raise $25,000,000, was that Rothschild told Mantouffil, that if he plundered Frankfort he'd crush the banks and bankers of Prussia. And he would have done it. This is one time when old Moneybags was stronger than old Mars.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 9.—The officers of the steamer Hamilton report Helena, Arkansas, taken by the 56th Regiment of U. S. C. I. They were firing indiscriminately upon the whites, and swore they would burn the town and kill every white citizen. One citizen had been fatally wounded and the excitement was intense. The citizens were fleeing to the woods.

SAVANNAH, Aug. 9.—The Cholera is among the negroes at the Lawton place near Bradlock Point. Eight cases and twelve deaths since Monday, and among them two whites.

Six boxes of muskets were seen two days ago in the town of St. Charles, Mo.; while in Franklin County one or two companies are already provided with arms. These and other incidents create a belief that the Radicals are organizing and arming for the purpose of continuing their tyranny over the State.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 11.—An atrocious murder was committed here today. A well dressed man visited a house on Race street, with a lady, and after remaining about an hour, the man departed, saying the lady was asleep and he did not wish to disturb her. An hour or two later, the proprietor of the house visited the room and found the girl with her head nearly severed from her body, with a sheet tightly tied around her.—Subsequently, through a picture found in the girl's trunk, the murderer was ascertained to be Newton Champion, an ex-Assistant Engineer in the Navy.

He was at once arrested. The woman's name was Herney, and he attempted to strangle her a few weeks ago.

Cobb's Island, situated off the coast of Northampton county, Va., eight miles distant from the main land, and about twenty miles north of Cape Charles, is said to be one of the most attractive on our coast, and admirably adapted in its situation and resources for a watering place. Capitalists in Baltimore are understood to have offered one hundred thousand dollars for the property, with a reservation to the elder Mr. Cobb of such portion as may be necessary for his residence. The old gentleman settled on the Island when a young man, buying it then for $150 in gold and fifty sacks of salt.

One of the monster farms of modern times is that of Gen. Urquiza, of Buenos Ayres.—It is composed of an unbroken body of 900 square miles, over which countless thousands of horses, cattle and sheep are grazing.

FROM PHILADELPHIA.

THE GREAT CONVENTION.

HARMONIOUS AND FRATERNA-

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

THE ADDRESS.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—Noon—

Senator Doolittle said, in opening his address to the Convention, that this was one of the greatest events of the day.

It was the first National Convention in six years and, in the interim, there had been blood, agony and tears for our brothers who had fallen.—Our resources had been wasted on a thousand battles, but thank God the assurance here

tells us that peace has come at last.

If the people of the whole country could see the fraternal feeling here, there would be no struggle at the polls this fall: (great applause.) but as the whole people cannot be here to witness what is transpiring, the greatest responsibility rests on us from this time until the election of the next Congress. We should be united in our exertion to see that the next Congress if this one shall continue to refuse this one shall representation to equal States, that the next shall recognize them. (Applause.)

When that is done the Union is restored, and when the Union is restored, we shall be prepared to enter upon a higher and nobler career than has ever yet been occupied by any government upon which the sun of heaven ever shone.

(Applause.)

The Convention was organized as follows:

J. R. Doolittle, President.

Among the Vice President are J. W.

Brockenborough, of Va.; John A. Gilmer, of N. C.; Judge Wardlaw, of S.

C. R. S. Lyons, of Ga.; Judge Randall,

of Fla.; C. Bullett, of La.; J. M. Tib-

bets, of Ark.; D. G. Barnett, of Texas;

George S. Houston, of Ala.; and Thos.

A. R. Nelson, of Tenn.

Edgar Cowan, of Penn., is Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions. In this Committee are Gen. Couch, of Mass.; Senator Dixon, of Connecticut;

Raymond, of New York; Bishop, of

Penn.; R. Verly Johnson, of Md.; Gar-

land, of N. C.; Gov. Perry, of S. C.;

Hon. C. C. Langdon, of Ala.; Wm.

Yerger, of Miss.; John Ray, of La.;

McDonald, of Cal.; and others.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—Noon—

The Convention met at 11 o'clock. The Wigwam was crowded to its utmost capacity. One half the audience were ladies. Senator Cowan from the Committee on Resolutions and Address,

presented a declaration of Principles

which was unanimously and enthusiastically adopted.

It declares that the war just ended

has maintained the authority of the Constitution and has preserved the Union,

with the equal rights, dignity and authority of all the States perfect and unimpaired that representation in Congress

and in the electoral colleges, is a right

adding in, and a duty imposed upon

every State, and has neither Congress

nor the General Government have any authority or power to deny the right to any State that Congress has no power

over the elective franchise but that power belongs exclusively to each State

that no State has the right to withdraw vasion. They fear the Irish picnic on

Grand Island, to be attended by fifteen

at the head of this movement.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 17.—Many of the delegates to the Convention left last evening, and the balance will leave today.

The proceedings throughout were most harmonious, not a single event to mar the good feeling.

The address, but not the resolutions were written by Henry J. Raymond.

During its reading for a time an almost breathless silence prevailed; the President requested the delegates and spectators to manifest no sign of approval, or to make other demonstrations, until the reading was completed.—This request

secured silence until the speaker arrived at the following paragraph: "And the ten millions of Americans who live in the South would be unworthy citizens of a free commonwealth, degenerate

some of an heroic ancestry, unfit even to become guardians of the rights and principles bequeathed to us by the fathers and founders of the Republic, if they could accept, with uncomplaining submission, the humiliation thus sought to be imposed upon them."

The entire audience then broke forth

in an unrestrained burst of applause,

which lasted for several minutes.

At the conclusion of this enthusiasm

a demand was made that the paragraph quoted be read over again, which was

assented to, and again the applause

broke forth with redoubled effect.

The Press Club gave a splendid banquet to the members of the press last night. The Radicals and Southern men fraternized, and high hilarity pre-valued.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—The National Union Convention re-assembled at the Wigwam at 10 o'clock this a. m. pursuant to adjournment. Every seat in the building was filled. The attendance of ladies was greater than on any previous meeting. The most unbounded enthusiasm prevailed. Rev. R. M. Snyder, of Pennsylvania, opened the proceedings with prayer.

The President of the Convention, Senator Doolittle, then rose and said: "Before we proceed to any further business, the chair begs leave to announce the first response of the call for this convention, the result of the Colorado Elections." (cheers.) He then read the following dispatch:

DENVER, Colorado Territory, Aug. 10.—"Returns from all parts of the territory render certain the election of A. C. Hart, the administration candidate to Congress, over Chilly, Radical."

The dispatch was greeted with applause.

Mr. Nowell, of New Jersey, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a National Union Executive Committee be appointed to be composed of two delegates from each State and Territory, and the District of Columbia.

The resolution was adopted.

Hon. Beverly Johnson, who, on rising, was greeted with enthusiastic cheers, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a committee consisting of two from each State and from each Territory and the District of Columbia, be appointed by the chair to wait upon the President of the United States and present him with an authentic report of the proceedings of this convention.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

Mr. Charles Knapp, of the District of Columbia offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a committee on Finance be appointed to consist of members from each State, Territory and the District of Columbia. The resolution was adopted.

Gen. Patten, of Pennsylvania, offered a resolution on the subject of representation in the convention, which, under the rules of the convention, was rejected, without reading or debate.

Senator Cowan then offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the thanks of the convention be, and are hereby tendered to Martin McMichael, Mayor of the city Philadelphia, for the admirable arrangements for the preservation of peace and good order during the sitting of the convention.

The resolution was greeted with applause, and carried unanimously.

Mr. Cowan again rose and said on behalf of the committee who were appointed to prepare the resolution and press: "I have to state that after a very careful and elaborate consideration of the subject, lasting all day and a part of the night, we have agreed on the following declaration of principles, adopted unanimously by this committee, which the Secretary of this Convention will read, and also an address to the people of the country, which will be read by Hon. Mr. Raymond, of New York, please."

The Secretary then proceeded to read declaration of principles each clause which was loudly applauded. The one, which endorsed the President, greeted with prolonged cheering, which the audience and delegates joined.

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES OF THE NATIONAL UNION CONVENTION IN THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA, COMPOSED OF DELEGATES FROM EVERY STATE AND TERRITORY IN THE UNION.

Admonished by the solemn lessons of the last five years it has pleased the Supreme Ruler of the universe to send to the American people, profound and grateful for the return of peace, desire in all sincerity to forget and forgive the past, reverence the Constitution as the basis of our national life, and to the Union in its restoration as more precious than ever, look with deep anxiety to the future, we hereby proclaim following declaration of principles purposes on which we have, with perfect unanimity, agreed.

We hail with gratitude to Almighty God the end of the war and the return of peace to an afflicted and beloved

The war just closed has maintained the authority of the Constitution and the powers which it confers and the restrictions which it confers on the general government, unabridged and unaltered; and it has preserved the Union with lawful rights, dignity and authority of the States, perfect and unimpaired.

3. Representation in the Congress of the United States, and in the Electoral College is a right recognized by the Constitution as abiding in every State, and is a duty imposed on the people, fundamental in its nature and essential to the exercise of our Republican Institution; and neither Congress nor general Government has any authority or power to deny this right to any, nor to withhold its enjoyment, under the Constitution from the people.

4. We call upon the people of the United States to elect to Congress members who admit the fundamental principles of representation, and who will receive loyal representatives from every State in allegiance to the United States subject to the constitutional power of each House to judge of election returns and qualifications of its own members.

5. The Constitution of the United States and laws thereof are the Supreme Law of the land, anything in the Constitution or laws of any State, to the contrary notwithstanding. All the power not conferred by the Constitution upon the general government, nor prohibited by the States, are reserved to the States, or the people thereof, and among these the right to prescribe qualifications for the elective franchise therein, which right Congress cannot interfere with. No State or convention of States has the right to withdraw from the Union nor to exclude through their action in Congress or otherwise, any State or States from the Union.—The Union of the States is perpetual, and amendments to the Constitution of the United States may be made by the people thereof as they may deem expedient, but only in the mode pointed out by the resolution proposing such amendments, whether by Congress or by a convention, and in ratifying the same all States of the Union have an equal and indisputable right to a vote therein.

7. Slavery is abolished and forever prohibited, nor there is neither desire nor purpose of the Southern States, that it should ever be re-established upon the enfranchised slaves in all the States of the Union should receive, in common with all their inhabitants, equal protection in every right of person and property.

8. While we regard as utterly invalid, and never to be assumed or made of binding force, any obligation incurred or undertaken in making war against the United States, we hold the debt of the nation to be sacred and inviolable, and we proclaim our purpose, in discharging this, as in performing all other national obligations, to maintain, unimpaired and unimpeached, the honor and faith of the Republic.

9. It is the duty of the National Convention to recognize the services of the federal soldiers and sailors in the contest just closed, by meeting promptly and fully all their just and rightful claims for the services they have rendered to the nation, and by the extension to those of them who have survived, and to the widows and orphans of those who have fallen, the most generous and considerate care.

10. I. Amos Johnson, President of the United States, who in his great office has proved steadfast in his devotion to the laws and interests of his country, unmoved by persecutions and undeserved reproach, having faith in the principles of the Government, we recognize a chief Magistrate worthy of the nation and equal to the great crisis upon which his lot is cast, and we tender to him in the discharge of his high and responsible duties, our profound respect and assurance of our cordial and sincere support.

After a vote had been taken on the adoption of the foregoing declaration of principles, it was found that the reading of the 7th one had been omitted by accident, and the fact was announced by Mr. Doolittle. It was then adopted with great applause and unanimity. The declaration of principles was then adopted as a whole, with enthusiastic cheers for the adoption. Three cheers were called for and given in the most enthusiastic manner for Senator Cowan of Pennsylvania.

Senator Cowan acknowledged the compliment, but said that as he considered himself the host of the Convention his distinguished guest would address it by virtue of authority unanimously derived from the Committee on Resolutions and Address, named Hon. H. J. Raymond, of New York.

Mr. Raymond therefore proceeded to read the address which had been written by himself, as had also the Declaration of Principles.

He was so frequently interrupted by applause that the chairman appealed to the convention to restrain such manifestations until the reading of the address should be concluded. Nevertheless, at the close of the sentence declaring that no people subjected to such treatment as that to which the South was now subjected could long remain loyal, cheer after cheer resounded through the wigwam.

Senator Johnson asked that the sentence be repeated, and it was read again as follows. "No people has ever yet existed whose loyalty and faith such treatment long continued, would not alienate and disappear. The ten millions of Americans who live in the South would be unworthy citizens of a free country, degenerate sons of a heroic ancestry unfit ever to become the guardians of the rights and liberties bequeathed to us by our fathers and founders of this Republic, if they could accept with uncomplaining submission the humiliations thus sought to be imposed upon them."

This sentence was again cheered with the greatest enthusiasm, and at the close of the reading of the address, Ex-Governor Perry, of South Carolina, rose and moved its adoption.

The motion was declared carried unanimously and prolonged cheering. Mr. Tilden, of New York, then rose and proposed, on behalf of the New York delegation, three cheers for the Hon. H. J. Raymond, who had prepared the address just read.

Mr. Patton, on behalf the Pennsylvania delegation, seconded the call.

The cheers were enthusiastically given.

The address contains about 8,000 words, and will make not far from four solid columns in the New York morning papers.

Stolen Southern Jewels—Where to Look for it.

The following is an extract from a letter from New York, published in the Baltimore Episcopal Methodist, of the 4th inst.

A Southern lady, on a visit to this city went to worship in one of the up town churches. Soon after an elegantly attired New York lady, of high social standing, entered the same pew and remained during the service; after which the Southern lady called her aside into the vestry room, and in the presence of the rector, with whom she was well acquainted, thus addressed her, "Madam, I do not wish to offend you, but the shawl you are wearing belongs to me." (The shawl was a superb one.) The New Yorker protested and declared that there must be some mistake. "If," says the Southern lady, "you will examine a certain corner, you will see my initials worked in it, and the rector knows my name very well."

The corner was found, and there also were the initials. The Southern lady then remarked, "That ring you have upon your finger is also mine, and if you will take the trouble to examine the interior, you will see the same initials engraved in the ring." Similar movements to those above described took place, and with like results. Turning to her again, the Southern lady said, "Madam, that bracelet you have on is mine also, and by pressing a spring on the inside, it will unclasp and show you my portrait." The New York lady did as requested, and there was the lady's portrait. She promptly returned the ring and bracelet, as she was convinced beyond the power to controvert it, that they were the property of this Southern lady, and remarked as she did so, "They are yours, and you're welcome to them, but as I wore the shawl to church, I must beg the privilege of wearing it home again." The Southern lady assented of course, and they exchanged cards. The shawl came back in due time, but the New York lady had probably obtained the articles in such a manner as to render it too unpleasant to divulge. No more was said about it.

MORAL.—If Southern ladies want to know where their missing articles of jewelry and wardrobe furniture are, let them attend some fashionable, up town New York church; and if Southern men want to know what become of all their fine horses, shipped North by army officers and "bummers," let them spend an evening in Central Park.

The steamer City of Buffalo was burned on the 30th while unloading a the dock in Buffalo. Sturges' elevator took fire from the burning boat, and was consumed, with 150,000 bushels of grain. Loss on the elevator and contents, $250,000, mostly insured; on steamer, $75,000; insurance $45,000.

END OF THE WORLD.—Dr. Cunningham, the celebrated London preacher and expounder of the prophecies, lately lectured at Halifax on the "Signs of the Times." He did not claim to be a prophet, but he expressed his belief that these were solemn and startling times, and that the world was on the point of great events. The great lines of prophecy seem to intersect the year 1867. The world, he believed, would not be destroyed, but would endure forever in a more purified and exalted state. Though he was unable to explain the increase of Romanism in England he believed the heart of the country was still true to Protestantism. In 1792 there were 5,000 priests in Paris, but, though the population of that city has doubled itself since that time, there were now 900 priests only in Paris. He believes the Saturday evening of world was very near, and that the Sabbath of a thousand years, which was at hand, then would be a sunrise which experiences no western declension. Dr. Cunningham has spent many years of hard study on the special subject of the second Advent, and, being a profound scholar and an earnest Christian gentleman, his words are worthy of consideration by all.—Cincinnati Com.

SILVER RING. Aug. 14, 1866. REVIVAL.—I learn that our brother Rev. S. G. Jenkins, has on his revival harness once again—has been near Louisville holding a protracted meeting with success with the Fellowship church one week, and the next week in Jefferson 10 miles from Demopolis, preaching twice per day, and some days three times, to large congregations—baptized 6 there—returned home and continued his Antioch meeting one week, preaching three times per day, and baptized eleven—is now carrying on a protracted meeting with his Gulf Water church, with increasing congregations—good prospects and interest. What an industrious laborer he is. Yours, resp. D. A. L.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIE'S is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantifiers, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all-healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggie's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggie's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggie's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no action in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicine very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggie's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggie's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhetic Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggie's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIE, 111 Pine Street, New York, Dis. NISBET & VAN DYKE, Jacksonville, Ala. and all Druggists, at 25 cts per box.

1866. INCREASE OF RATS.—The Farmer's Gazette (English) asserts and proves by figures, that one pair of Rats will have a progeny and descendants no less than 651,050 in three years. Now, unless this immense family can be kept down, they would consume more food than would sustain 65,000 human beings.

See "Costar's" advertisement above.

1866. RATS AND BED BUGS.—Whoever engages in shooting snail-trails is a cruel man; who over-extends in exterminating rats is a benefactor. We should like some one to give us the benefit of their experience in driving out these pests. We need something besides dogs, cats and traps for this business.

See "Costar's" advertisement above.

1866. COSTAR'S RAT EXTERMINATOR is simple, safe, and sure—the most perfect Rat-exterminating meeting we have ever attended. Every Rat that can get it, properly prepared, will eat it, and every one that eats it will die, generally at some place as distant as possible from where it was taken.
